Apply—Even if Chances Seem Slim

ESCC's financial aid staff always say to students that they should apply for financial aid even when not eligible for federal aid because there may be eligibility for state or school financial aid.

So complete the FAFSA regardless of what you think your qualifying chances are.

Remember that student financial aid is not meant to provide a free ride through your time spent at college. It provides assistance to those who might not otherwise be able to attend college.

Budgeting Tips

For many people the downturn in the economy has meant budgeting tightly. Going to college is no different.

TIP #1: Understand the difference between what you NEED and what you WANT. It's never too early to learn to buy the things you need and then (and only if you can afford it), buy the things you'd love to have.

TIP #2: If you need cash from an ATM, use your debit card and not your credit card. Cash advances on credit cards are a rip-off. You pay fees to get the money, as well as a very high interest rate on paying it back.

Beware When Shopping for Financial Aid Opportunities!

Crime moved into the high-tech world, and the unscrupulous and fraudulent have discovered new and devastating techniques. The application process for financial aid for college provides these people with opportunities. Here are some shopping tips to help you along the way

TIP #1: Stay away from "guarantees" of scholarships. Reputable groups don't charge for information about scholarships. Steer clear of anyone "guaranteeing" you financial aid for college or vocational school—especially if they insist you pay them for the information first. TIP #2: Don't give out personal information on the phone, by mail, or online. When a lender whose name you don't recognize calls you, ask them for a name and phone number. Call them back and listen to how they answer the phone.

TIP #3: When online be sure the URL that receives your information is HTTPS. The "S" indicates a secure, encrypted connection. A padlock icon will display in your browser.

TIP #4: With paper, buy a good shredder and use it daily.
